Recent volumes on public affairs and phases of current thought of interest and importance to American readers

Caribbean Interests of the United States

BY CHESTER LLOYD JONES, Professor of Political Science, University of Wisconsin.

With the Caribbean fast becoming a second Mediterranean, this discussion of its commercial, diplomatic and strategic aspects as they affect the United States is of vital importance at the present time. 8vo. $2.50 net.

Contemporary Politics in the Far East

BY STANLEY K. HORNBECK, Assistant Professor of Political Science, University of Wisconsin

This new volume meets the demand for accurate, up-to-date information on Eastern affairs and contemporary relations between China, Japan and the United States. It deals with current political institutions and tendencies in the Orient. 8vo. $3.00 net.

The Former Philippines

A History of the Philippines to 1898

BY AUSTIN CRAIG, Associate Professor of History, University of the Philippines
AND CONRADO BENITEZ, Instructor in Economics, University of the Philippines

A remarkably interesting book, giving the pre-Spanish history (A.D. 300 to 1565), followed by an account of the Spanish occupation and finally the beginning of the Philippine Nationalism, the story of a 333 years' struggle for liberty. With brief biographies of 1000 famous Filipinos. $3.00 net.

Great Britain's Part

BY PAUL D. CRAVATH

The answer to "What Has Britain Done?" A book unique among war books, in that it deals with the "business" side of modern warfare. Mr. Cravath tells what he actually saw—and he has seen more than probably any other American. $1.00 net.

Principles of American State Administration

BY JOHN MABRY MATHEWS, Associate Professor of Political Science, University of Illinois

The first single volume describing comprehensively and systematically the organization and functions of State Administrative activities. The treatment is practical and covers every point of State administration of permanent value and interest. 8vo. $2.50 net.

Municipal Functions

BY HERMAN C. JAMES, Associate Professor of Government and Director of the Bureau of Municipal Research, University of Texas

A simple, but thorough survey of the whole field of municipal endeavor, which will enable every citizen to form an intelligent opinion of the needs of his city. $2.00 net.

Women and Work

By HELEN MARIE BENNETT, Manager of the Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupations

In view of the wide-spread tendency to criticize the college girl in business, this book is of timely importance. It is a personal, philosophical discussion of the relations of a college girl to her vocation. $1.50 net.

The American Year Book

EDITED BY FRANCIS G. WICKWARE, with the co-operation of national learned and scientific societies

A book for busy people. A short-cut to accurate information on events and progress in all fields of human activity during the past year. $3.00 net.

Great Companions

BY EDITH WYATT

In a delightfully intimate style, Miss Wyatt discusses the personalities of those she considers among the greatest writers. Her subjects range from De Foe to the authors of the present day. $1.50 net.
